LOCAL AND GENERAL.

BIRTHS.

On the 29th December, at Wirreanda, Amy, the Wife of G. GRAY DONALD, of a Son.

On the 14th January, at No. 2, Astor Terrace, Shanghai, the Wife of GEO. FRAZER, of a Son.

On the 16th January, at No. 1, Acushnet Villas, Bubbling Well Road, Shanghai, the Wife of J. H. ROMSAT, of a Daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Tientsin, on the 20th December, at the Imperial German Consulate and Vicariate, Shanghai, the Chinese Minister to Corea, M. Li Hong-chang, and his wife, the Rev. F. Fenner, Chaplain to H.I.G.M.A.'s Forces, ALFRED WOLKEN, to ANNA, second daughter of K. Gipprich, of Shanghai, and daughter of the late H. A. Holmes, Esq., of LEWELLIN T. A. C. SHILLINGTON, of Portree, Isle of Skye, Scotland.

The hearing of evidence in the original suit Li Shewng v. the Wing Fung Tai Firm was resumed at the Supreme Court to-day.

It is now proposed that the Chinese Court should go to Yangtze, east of Ichang, instead of moving to Wuchang as at first suggested.

Two bouch-combers brought before the Consular Court at Shanghai for malicious conduct were discharged when they stated they had been promised passage to Hongkong.

The concert which was to have been given on board H.M.S. Tarantula last night was cancelled in consequence of the grave news received as to the condition of Her Majesty the Queen.

There having been a strike among the natives employed in the office of L'Echo de Chine at Shanghai, the paper had not appeared for several days when our latest advice left Shanghai.

The Rev. Dr J. R. Hykes, Vice-Sub-Governor for the United States at Appellate Jurisdiction, before his Honours Sir John Cunningham, Kt., C.M.G., Chief Justice, and T. Sevanteen Smith, Acting Police Judge, Mr. A. H. Sharp, barrister-at-law, applied formally on behalf of Messrs. E. Ibrahim and Co., for leave to appeal against the decision of the judge in the summary suit by the firm against Chi Yuen, also against the decision in the cross suit in which his clients are defendants. Mr. Sharp said the appeal was not upon a point of law, but upon the meaning of the words "in equity" and "fairly" used in the contract of the new Tafti at the offices of the Consulate.

In a Gazette Extraordinary, issued yesterday, it is notified that His Excellency the Governor had appointed Captain C. G. Pritchard, R. G. A., to perform the duties of Adjutant to the Hongkong Volunteer Corps, from the 1st inst. until the end of March, 1901.

Consul-General and Mrs. Wildman and family left to-day by the City of Rio de Janeiro for the United States. Mr. Wildman proceeds to Washington on official business, and will return to Hongkong in June.

During his absence from the Colony the business of the Consulate will be conducted by Mr. W. F. Aldrich, who has been acting for some time as Vice-Consul.

for the hearing of the motions.

Foreigners in China.

The following dispatch has been received from our native correspondent at Nanking (says the N. & S. Daily News):—Viceroy Liu Kung-yi will issue to-morrow (15th January) proclamation to be posted in all the territories within his jurisdiction as High Commissioner of the Nanjing administration, that is to say, from Ningpo southwards down to Lung-chou, Kuangsi, and westwards to the Burma frontier, etc., informing all Chinese of the peace soon to be made between China and the Powers and calling upon all loyal Chinese to treat all foreigners they may meet courteously and kindly, etc. When Viceroy Liu's proclamation comes out, it will be necessary for all the various departments connected with the various departments under the latter's management in the South, necessitating his constant attention, he fears that he will not be able to start till after Chinese New Year.

POLLARD'S LILLIPUTIANS.

The Pollard's Lilliputians appeared last night for the third time in "A Gaity Girl." An impressive reminder of sorrowful news received of the Queen was the opening of the performance by the assemblage of the whole company on the stage, and the singing of "God Save the Queen," a prayer which was reverently echoed by the audience. The performance then proceeded in the hearty and spirited manner which characterizes every appearance of the company. The special features, including the Irish jig and skirt dance and the grand Pierrot ballet, were rendered with such pleasing effect that they had each to be repeated. The company appears to-night in the musical comedy "In Town."

THE TELEPHONE CO.

In the Supreme Court at Shanghai on the 17th inst., an action by the China and Japan Telephone Co. against E. E. Porter came before Judge Wilkinson. This was a motion by the defendant (Porter) for an order that the petition in the above original suit might be dismissed with costs. The subject matter of the petition was that the defendant while in the employ of the plaintiff company under an agreement, and without the knowledge or consent of the company or its directors, purchased and sold on his own account in China, Hongkong or Japan electrical plants and fittings and effected installations and did not account to the plaintiff company for the same. Mr. D. McNeill appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. H. Brushfield for the defendant. The case was adjourned by consent until a day to be fixed on the application of either party.

Size.—Were you ever in a railway disaster? "No." "Yes." I once kissed the wrong woman in a tunnel.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

NOTES BY THE WAY.

There is now a Society of Engineers and Architects at Shanghai.

Some five million people are threatened with starvation in Shensi.

The hearing of evidence in the original suit Li Shewng v. the Wing Fung Tai

Firm was resumed at the Supreme Court to-day.

INTERESTING TO LAUNCH OWNERS.

The regulations with reference to the engagement and discharge of masters and seafarers of steamships under sixty tons burthen, by His Excellency the Governor-in-Council, under the Merchant Shipping Consolidation (Edinburgh, 1891), on the 28th December 1900, came into force on 1st February.

AN REFORMER TO THE FRONT.

The Universal Gazette tells us that Chang Poh, Literary Chancellor of Kwangtung, a man of moderately liberal ideas, who recommended Kang Yu-wei, Liang Chichiau, and a few other reformers as suitable candidates for the Extraordinary Examination proposed to be held at Peking in 1898, has been ordered to proceed with all haste to Hsien, and that he will be given an appointment in the Grand Council.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPALITY.

Eleven qualified ratemakers have been nominated to serve on the Shanghai Municipal Council for the ensuing year. The list includes all the members of the present Council except Movers, McLeod and Skotow, one former member Mr. H. R. Kinney, and three new candidates for municipal members, Messrs. F. P. Ball, of the American Trading Co., W. G. Bayne, of the North-China Insurance Co., and J. E. Boeck, of the American Warehouse. This year there will have to be a ballot.

CABLE INTERRUPTION.

The continued interruption of telegraphic communication between Hongkong and Shanghai is responsible for the absence of our Special Telegrams. Both the cable and the Chinese land lines are broken. At present, business telegrams are being wired to Foshau and thence posted to Shanghai. The next steamer for Shanghai is advertised to leave Foshau on or about Saturday, 25th inst. We hear that some telegrams from Hongkong to Japan and North China have been sent by way of Europe and Siberia—rather a roundabout way for peculiarity in the cabling.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE.

There were two cases of bubonic plague reported in the City during the week ended 10th January. The cases, which were Chinese, proved fatal. One Chinese died of enteric fever, and one Japanese died of smallpox. There were no other cases of communicable disease reported.

AMOY RACE MEETING.

Honorary Stewards—Dr C. Merz and C. Lenox Simpson, Esq.
Stewards—A. B. Johnson, Esq.; R. W. Mansfield, Esq.; F. B. Marshall, Esq.; Dr. H. Macdougall; Aug. Pichl, Esq.; E. Thomas, Esq.; R. W. Mansfield, Esq.; F. B. Marshall, Esq.; A. B. Johnson, Esq.; Dr. H. Macdougall and Aug. Pichl, Esq.
Clerk of the Course—F. B. Marshall, Esq.
Hon. Sec. and Treasurer—E. Thomas, Esq.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, 10TH.

11TH AND 12TH JANUARY.

The clerk of the weather was singularly favourable to the Amoy Race Meeting this year. Two brilliant days and a mere threatening for the third was as much as the most sanguine could have hoped for. The attendance was large each day; a fair percentage of strangers and a sprinkling of pretty dresses imparting the correct air of festivity to the scene. Racing was good throughout, and the fact that Hongkong and Foochow ponies were competing lent a further interest to the proceedings. For Hongkong, Persia, Bawitwelt and Thidle each won a race, but with the exception of Thidle none went out for the Champions. Flyaway took the Stewards and the Paris Mutual Cup to Foochow, though he failed to carry his 7 lbs. penalty over the mile for the Compradores Cup. Turning back to Amoy, Ace of Hearts and Ante won well for their stable, securing five wins between them, Ante being only beaten in the Championships, where no one succeeded in getting up to Amoy, who won the winner in Tit-Bite, who was not able to snatch second place from the speedy Tessin. The purse was presented by Miss Mabel Saunders, who made a graceful little speech. Mr. Chuck Burkhill, Pollie's rider, replying in a few neatly-turned words. The race for the Champions was looked upon more or less as a match between Ace of Hearts and Hope, but Hope had always the best of it, winning by seven lengths and justifying his owner's opinion of him. An extra race, one mile, was put in on the second day for a cup presented by H.M.S. Argonaut, which brought out four starters, Ace of Hearts securing first place. A little much-needed rain which fell previous to the meeting made good going. The attendance of Chinese was large and more booths were noticed than usual. The hand of H.M.S. Argonaut, by kind permission of Captain Cherry and officers, played each afternoon with excellent effect. The lunch served was first-rate and private hospitality was widely dispensed. The following are the winners of places, with jockeys' names and weights:

THAT MEANS RHEUMATISM.—Sore and swollen joints, sharp shooting pain, torturing muscles, no rest, no sleep. That means rheumatism. It is a stubborn visage to sight, but Chamberlain's Pain Ease has conquered it thoroughly of rheumatis. It will do so whenever the opportunity is offered. Try it. One application relieves the pain.
